Cascade Community Credit Union Announces New Mortgage Loan Officer

Roseburg, Oregon – Cascade Community Credit Union (CCCU) is pleased to announce the selection of Landrie Bossemeyer as the credit union’s new Mortgage Loan Officer.

Landrie will be heading up the Mortgage department at CCCU and aiding in the expansion of the credit union’s mortgage products and services.

As a native Oregonian and longtime Roseburg resident, Landrie offers over 20 years of banking, management, and lending experience. She began her banking career in the early 1990s at Bank of America’s Roseburg branch and later transferred to the Portland area where she worked in various roles ranging from Mortgage Loan Processor to Department Manager. In 2004 she relocated to Central Oregon and went on to work for a regional bank before returning to the Roseburg area in 2014. Prior to accepting the position at CCCU, Landrie worked as a Mortgage Loan Officer for a local broker. Landrie is passionate about ensuring her clients have a positive home loan experience—offering frequent communication, personalized service, and timely loan closings.

When asked about her new position at CCCU, Landrie stated, “It is an honor to accept the position of Mortgage Loan Officer at a financial institution with such a wonderful reputation within the community. I am excited to serve the credit union members and look forward to growing the Mortgage department at Cascade Community Credit Union.”
