2. Special achievements
3. Written statement
4. Demonstrated responsibility in school, work, and community service activities
5. Leadership
6. Letters of recommendation

Terms:

The scholarship winner must be entered in an eligible institution by fall term following the granting of the scholarship award. The award is in the amount of $5,000, which will be paid-out over a 4 year period. A $2,000 payment will be made the first year with three consecutive payments of $1,000 made for the second through fourth years. The payments will be applied towards books and tuition only. In cases where students wish to interrupt the normal period of study, they may petition the credit union Board of Directors for postponement of the standard award disbursement period. Should a scholarship winner not enroll in college as stipulated, the award will be given to an alternate applicant or remain in the account until the following year. Should there be no qualified applicant; the award will remain in the account.
